

DOUBLE T

'Twas double T from Melba Shed who caught the cycling craze.
He turned away the good old car that served him many days.
He dressed himself in something warm to join the cycling troop.
He'd heard they were a lively bunch and quite a friendly group.
He hurried to Black Pepper, and found himself a seat.
He said "Hello," and "How are you?" "I'll rest my weary feet."
He settled down and looked around and thought "This is for me!"
So he just sat, and had a chat, and enjoyed the company and tea.

The day was fine, the sky was blue. The morning sun did shine
The scene was great, across the lake, we all enjoyed the view.
Trees, water, and the hills, a feature of our city.
What's that, you say? He didn't ride? Now isn't that a pity.
Ted came by car....to ride's too far.....he didn't ride a bike!
Let's help Ted out!....All in the shout.
And buy our Ted a trike!
